Save time and improve workflow when making curriculum changes

The Automated Curriculum Changes Solution eliminates manual data entry and form-based solutions by providing an automated workflow. Registrars and Academic Departments can make curriculum changes in a decentralized online process, rather than a centralized paper-based process. Upon approval, the solution captures the desired curriculum changes made by selected administrators across the University's colleges/schools and uploads the changes directly into Banner.

Benefits of the Evisions Automated Curriculum Changes Solution

Empowers staff

Allows authorized staff to make changes themselves when needed

Automates the workflow

Eliminates, or reduces, manual data entry and form-based processes, saving time and hassle

Configurable

Is set up based on your institution's specific requirements, and supports multiple majors and minors

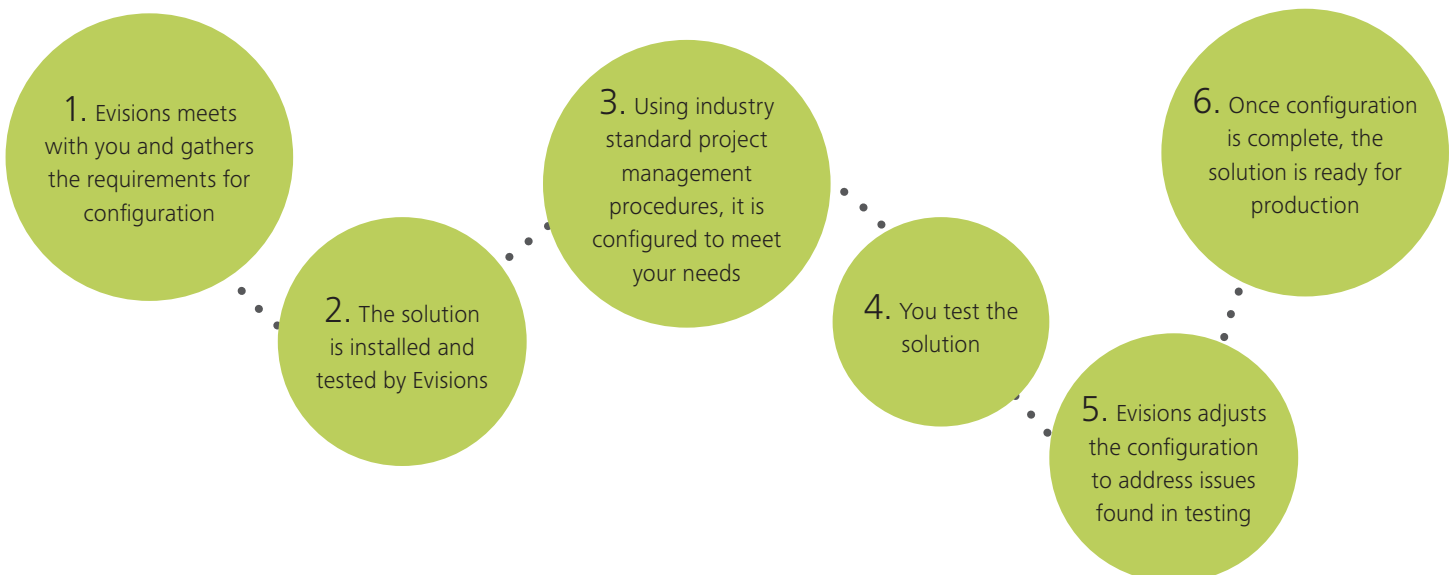

Maintains data integrity

The standard Banner interface enables you to pull data from a single source

Implementation & Delivery

The Automated Curriculum Changes Solution is quick and easy to implement (it consists of an Oracle database package and an Argos DataBlock):

The top center displays 'Curriculum Information for: N00029374 Wolf, Eleanor T'. The top right corner displays 'Automated Curriculum Change'. The 'Concentrations' table is empty. The 'Minors' table is also empty. To the right of these tables is an 'Actions' panel with a blue header. It contains four buttons: 'Add a Major', 'Change Selected Major', 'Change Selected Major to Inactive', and 'Change Catalog for Selected Major'. Below these buttons, it says 'No Concentrations Available'. At the bottom of the 'Actions' panel is an 'Add a Minor' button.
